Executive Director Testified in Front of Congress

BAC Home's Jeffery Morehouse testified before the U.S. House Foreign Affairs subcommittee hearing on the kidnapping of son, "Mochi" Atomu Imoto Morehouse, and the other cases. The hearing was convened by U.S. Rep. Christopher Smith (R-NJ) to hear parent testimony and review the status of U.S. Dept. of State implementation of the Goldman Act.

Organization Calls for India to Help Return Kids Home

Bring Our Kids Home (BOKH) is a organization of parents whose American children are abducted to India. The rapidly growing organization advocates for their return and for India's enforcement of the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child and accession to the Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction. BOKH Home member Samina Rahman, MD, recently penned an editorial, "Family Abductions: Is there a Solution", for the Indian Panorama. You can read her solutions here.

iStand Conference 2015

Parents and supporters from ten states and six international parental advocacy organizations descended upon Washington, DC March 25-27 for three days of Embassy protests, meetings with high-level Congressional representatives, and a candlelight vigil at the White House.

Now in its second year, the iStand Parent Network 2015 International Parents' Conference & Embassy Walk is a three-day conference and direct action campaign in which parents, organizations and supporters banded together to address and prevent international parental child abduction, a problem they say has reached 'pandemic proportions' in the last decade.

iStand Welcomes New Partner

iStand Parent Network is pleased to welcome our newest partner, Return US Home (RUSH) to the movement for our children. If you haven't seen this deeply moving video, WE MATTER!, please take a few minutes to view it. It will inspire you.

Welcome RUSH! We are excited to join ranks with you for our kids!
